

Restaurants located within walking distance of the Overcash Center.

Located at Elizabeth and Charlottetown

Cuisine Malaya, 704/372-0766, located on the corner of Elizabeth and Charlottetown, Cuisine Malaya offers a wide range of food: Malaysian, Japanese, Chinese and Indian. They also have a huge sushi menu. They open at 11:30 am, and offer luncheon specials. Average cost of lunch is $5.95, not including drink.

The Red Sea, an Ethiopian restaurant. Red Sea has luncheon specials including chicken, fish (whiting) lamb or beef. The food is served on a huge platter on top of soft, flat spongy bread. Entrée and drink is around $7.

The Fortune Cookie. 704/377-1388, Soups, egg rolls, wings and other basic appetizers are offered, as well as the Chinese standards: sweet and sour chicken or pork, lo mien, beef and broccoli – the list goes on. Wraps are also on the menu. Portions are generous. A light lunch from the appetizer menu, soup, egg roll and a drink) is under $5. The luncheon specials are around $6 and up. The restaurant is open for lunch and dinner, and is smoke free.

Bojangles – Fast Food.

Restaurants located on Elizabeth Ave.

Leo's Deli, 704/375-2400, has the distinction of being the oldest deli in Charlotte. They've been around since 1948. They serve sandwiches, salads, and those great kosher dills. Prices average around $6, not including drink.

S K Net Café. Coffee, mochas, cappuccinos, lattes, smoothies, Coke, Pepsi, juice and Gatorade. Pastries and microwaveable food, such as sausage biscuits are also sold.

As the name implies, the café is Internet friendly, offering free wireless access. The management only requires that you make a purchase while you're there.

Nofo, 704/444-9002 consists of a gift store and a cafe. The Gift Store carries an eclectic mix of funky furniture, kids stuff, lamps, linens, kitchen wares, mirrors, antiques, pillows, chandeliers, bed and bath products, books, specialty groceries such as fine chocolates, novelty candies, beer and wine, cookies, nuts, sauces, condiments, whole bean coffees and tea. The Cafe serves lunch & dinner Monday through Saturday and Sunday brunch. The menu includes soups, salads, sandwiches entrees, and daily specials.

Mexi Cafe – recently opened

Nothing but Noodles –A fast-casual restaurant serving made to order noodle and global pasta dishes. Meals served within 15 minutes of entering the store. Enjoy a wok-seared bowl of noodles or a garden fresh salad served in heavy ceramic china bowls.

1900 – Mexican Café

Elizabeth Creamery - serving Ice Cream

Starbucks - serving coffee drinks and pastries

Located on Kings Drive

Mama Ricotta's, 601 South Kings Drive, 704/343-0148

Subway, 355 South Kings Drive, 704/3374-8272